

Purpose

The Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program (AFLSP) provides young Asian scholars the opportunity to study abroad at one of 6 Partner Universities (including Kyoto University) located across five cities in East Asia.

Number of recipients

Approximately 10, throughout the university

Scholarship Overview

Term : Maximum of 2 years (extension not possible)

Monthly amount : Approximately 150,000 Japanese yen

An amount equivalent to 535,800 Japanese yen to cover tuition for one year and 282,000

Japanese yen to cover admission fees shall be paid separately

Selection Criteria

- Students from East, Southeast and South Asia, except Japan
- Students who expect to enroll in a master's degree program
- Take part in enrichment programs to exchange ideas and learn about cultural diversity
- Commitment to attending the BXAI Summer Program
- High proficiency in English
- Applicants should possess:
  - Strong personal integrity
  - Propensity for international and intercultural understanding
  - Compassion and willingness to serve

Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program

Inquiries

AFLSP Coordinator, International Education and Student Mobility Division, Education Promotion and Student Support Department, Kyoto University

Address :

Yoshida Nihonmatsu-cho, Sakyo-ku, Kyoto,
606-8501, Japan

E-mail : AFLSP@mail2.adm.kyoto-u.ac.jp

京都大学
KYOTO UNIVERSITY

ACT NOW!

BAI XIAN : <https://www.bxai.org/>

AFLSP : <https://www.aflsp.kyoto-u.ac.jp/>