ABOUT CORNELL UNIVERSITY
Cornell University is the federal land-grant institution of New York State, a private endowed university, a member of the Ivy League, and a partner of the State University of New York. It has been described as the first truly American university because of its founders' revolutionarily egalitarian and practical vision of higher education, and is dedicated to its land-grant mission of outreach and public service. Founded in 1865 by Ezra Cornell and Andrew Dickson White, Cornell was intended to teach and make contributions in all fields of knowledge. These ideals are captured in Cornell's motto, a popular 1865 Ezra Cornell quotation: "I would found an institution where any person can find instruction in any study."

ABOUT ITHACA, NY
Ithaca, NY, home to Cornell University and Ithaca College, is one of the best known and best loved "college towns" in the nation. Students make up a sizable portion of the population and even have a mini commercial district on the edge of campus. Located in the Finger Lakes region in the middle of the state of New York, Ithaca draws tourists to its waterfalls and gorges, its wineries, its restaurants, and hiking trails. A small city in a rural part of the state, Ithaca is known for its engaged citizens, cooperative ventures, and an emerging start-up sector. Put simply, students find plenty of ways to be active beyond the classroom and campus whether in the community or out in nature.

COURSE INFORMATION

Home College/Department/Major	Exchange students accepted at Cornell will be admitted into a major in the college or unit participating in the exchange. It is expected that students applying to the exchange program will be interested in taking the majority of their classes in this college or unit. Enrollment in classes in other colleges at Cornell is possible but cannot be guaranteed. Only students in business degree programs can apply to the Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management or the Nolan School of Hotel Administration as their Home College. Graduate degree programs and professional colleges and schools (Law, Veterinary Medicine, SC Johnson College of Business, Cornell Tech, Weill Cornell Medical School) are not included in undergraduate exchange agreements.
Academic restrictions	Exchange students will be permitted to enroll in any course for which they are qualified, subject to meeting admission requirements, prerequisites, and timetable and capacity constraints at Cornell. However, there are specific academic restrictions to bear in mind: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Exchange students are unable to take courses in Computer Science (CS). Related subjects may be found in other departments (Electrical and Computer Engineering; Information Science, Systems, and Technology; or Operations Research and Information Engineering).</li> <li>• Studio classes (architecture, art, design, and fashion) are typically not available to students through general exchange agreements.</li> <li>• Senior capstone courses as well as first year writing seminars are not available to exchange students.</li> <li>• Courses associated with professional graduate degree programs in any college are not available to non-degree students.</li> <li>• Generally, undergraduate exchange students are not approved to take graduate-level courses.</li> </ul>
Registration / Course Enrollment	Admitted students will receive information about registering for courses from their college. In most cases, exchange students will enroll in courses after matriculated (regular, full-time) Cornell students. Exchange students may find that certain courses are closed or already full. It is important to be flexible with course selection and schedules. While students are asked to provide initial course requests at the time of application, this does not constitute enrollment. Course changes are possible during the first two weeks of classes in advance of the “Add/Drop” deadline.

Course Load	Exchange students on F-1 visas are required to maintain full-time status while studying in the United States. Students must enroll in a minimum of 12 credits per semester during the academic year.  Most exchange students enroll in 14-16 credits per semester. Exceeding 16 credits is not recommended.
Course Roster	Course descriptions can be accessed through the Courses of Study at courses.cornell.edu . If viewing before the upcoming year's Courses of Study is published, use the most current version of the Courses of Study. Normally the course descriptions will indicate if they are to run in the following year.  Actual course availability and class times are NOT listed in the Courses of Study. This information is listed in the Class Roster at classes.cornell.edu . Note: the class roster for the appropriate semester may not be available at the time the student completes their application.  We cannot guarantee enrollment in any course. Enrollment permission is often subject to class size limitations, the consent of instructors, and demonstrated academic qualifications in the form of prerequisites.
Advising	Exchange students continue to be supported by an advisor in the Office of Global Learning. Exchange students may be assigned an advisor in their home college for academic matters. Depending on the college they may have a faculty advisor as well.
Grading Scale	The official university grading system is composed of letter grades with pluses and minuses. Passing grades range from A+ to D-; F is failing.

POST-ACCEPTANCE INFORMATION

Housing	Housing is limited and not guaranteed for exchange students. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Fall semester: Finding housing can be very challenging. On-campus housing is not available, and single-semester leases within commuting distance are difficult to secure.</li> <li>• Spring semester: Housing may be available on-campus and is generally easy to find off-campus.</li> <li>• Academic year: Off-campus only</li> </ul> Note: Upon nomination to Cornell we encourage students to begin searching for housing. However, students should not commit to housing (financially or otherwise) until they have received admission notification from Cornell and have secured a visa appointment. On-campus housing: living.sas.cornell.edu/live/apply/ Off-campus living: ccengagement.cornell.edu/off-campus-living
Meals	Cornell University offers many dining plan options for students who want to have a full or partial meal plan. Restaurants and groceries are available in the Collegetown neighborhood next to campus and by bus.

Orientation and Events	All incoming students are expected to attend new student orientation programs. More information on general Cornell orientation for undergraduates can be found here: newstudents.cornell.edu Exchange students also attend a campus-wide Exchange orientation at the beginning of each semester, in addition to applicable College-specific orientation events.
Health Insurance &amp; Immunizations	All students are enrolled in Cornell's Student Health Plan insurance. This is mandatory and cannot be waived by international students unless they are covered by an acceptable U.S. employer-based health insurance plan. All students must show proof of immunizations as part of the student on-boarding process.
Costs	Exchange students do not pay Cornell tuition, but are responsible for charges that will be billed through the Cornell Bursar system: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Student Health Plan insurance</li> <li>• Student Health Fee</li> <li>• Activity Fee</li> </ul> For a breakdown of expenses, see: Cost to Attend. This includes an estimate of additional costs payable by the student, including housing, meals, books and personal expenses. Spending varies greatly according to personal habits and choices.
