

PICTURING HONG KONG

through Historical Paintings & Photos

Yip Yan-chuen
Pearl of the Orient, 1953

5 NOV 2020 (Thu)

9am

Hong Kong Time (UTC+8)

Hailed as the 'Pearl of the Orient', Hong Kong's charms long captivated artists, tourists, and Hollywood. Paintings by classical Chinese painters and colored slides by sojourning American military officers offer different perspectives of this port-turned-metropolis.

Or do they not?

Join us and make up for what you miss seeing in person with an in-depth look at historical paintings and rare vintage photos of Hong Kong in The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) collection. Scholars from different disciplines will introduce early tourist attractions against 21st century street views.
