

Global Study Program Application Process

1. Students from our partner universities who meet our admission criteria are eligible to apply
 - a. High academic performance (minimum “B” grade point average, equivalent to 3.0 on a 4.0 scale) and the recommendation of their home university
 - b. TOEFL scores: Minimum 197 CBT, 530 PBT, 71 IBT, 750 TOEIC or 6.5 IELTS (Course of study varies with English level)
 - c. Preparation programs accept students with 500 TOEFL or the equivalent.
2. Students are selected for admission into the Global Study Program (GSP) per their host universities internal selection process.
3. Students are directed to fill out an online application for the GSP at <http://globalstudy.ucdavis.edu/gsap.asp>.
4. Students submit supplemental documents to their international programs office.
 - a. Official copy of most recent home university transcript
 - b. Copy of the photo page of passport
 - c. Official report of English language score(s)
 - d. Financial statement (The statement should be in English, on bank letterhead and be dated within the last 90 days. If the statement is from a parent, family member, or other personal sponsor, a letter from that parent/family member/sponsor should accompany the statement which states that he/she is willing to support the student while he/she attends school here. The statement needs to include sufficient funds to cover the estimated cost of attending the program (tuition and accommodations).)
5. International Programs Office sends supplemental documents to the GSP Coordinator (Jacob Hosier, jhosier@ucdavis.edu) along with a list of its recommended students.
6. The Global Study Program reviews all applications and makes admission and placement decisions.
7. Partner universities and students are notified of admission decisions and welcome materials are mailed to the students care of the host university, usually within one month of the application deadline.
