University-wide Student Exchange Program (USTEP)

Academic Year 2021-22

General Information
Brief Introduction of the University	The University of Tokyo, also known and hereinafter referred to as "UTokyo", was established in 1877 as the first national university in Japan. As a leading research university, UTokyo offers courses in essentially all academic disciplines at both undergraduate and graduate levels and conducts research across the full spectrum of academic activity. The university aims to provide its students with a rich and varied academic environment that ensures opportunities for both intellectual development and the acquisition of professional knowledge and skills.
University-wide Student Exchange Program	UTokyo accepts exchange students from partner universities with which the University has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding concerning student exchange. Exchange students can choose between Type G and Type U programs. Type G program is designed for graduate students. Type G participants will belong to one of the Graduate Schools to which they are admitted and will be able to take various courses or conduct research under the guidance of a faculty advisor. Type U program is designed for undergraduate students to take various courses given in English and/or Japanese in the various Faculties/College in accordance with their English and/or Japanese language proficiency.
Type G Qualifications	Students satisfying all of the following requirements are eligible to apply : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students who will be enrolled full-time at a Partner University during their entire period of study at UTokyo. 2. Students who will return to their home university after completing their study or research at UTokyo. 3. Students who demonstrate excellent academic performance. 4. Students who have a clear intention to study or research at UTokyo. 5. Students who have official proof of their required language proficiency and meet other conditions that may be set by individual Graduate Schools. (For more details, see Prerequisites for USTEP Type G Applicants and check the other conditions.)
Type U Qualifications	Students satisfying all of the following requirements are eligible to apply : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Undergraduate students who will be enrolled full-time at a Partner University during their entire period of study at UTokyo. 2. Undergraduate students who will return to their home university after completing their study at UTokyo. 3. Undergraduate students who demonstrate excellent academic performance. 4. Undergraduate students who have a clear intention to study at UTokyo. 5. Undergraduate students who have official proof of their required language proficiency and meet other conditions at the time of submission of application. Note: In principle, first and second year undergraduate students are not accepted for USTEP. For students enrolled in three-year undergraduate programs, they must have finished at least 1.5-year of the program at the time of their arrival at UTokyo.

Period of Study	1. April to August [S1S2] 2. April to March [S1S2 A1A2 (W)] 3. September to March [A1A2 (W)] 4. September to August [A1A2 (W) S1S2] Note: W term is optional. AY2020 Academic Calendar *The Academic Calendar for AY 2021 will be available in January 2021.
Course Catalogue	Students will officially register for courses in April or September after their arrival and orientation at UTokyo. Courses offered in the Type U program can be found in the Course Catalogue for Type U students. Note: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Available courses change every year and the courses currently on the website may not be offered in the following year. 2. List of courses open to USTEP students for AY 2021 (April-March) will be available in late March of 2021. 3. Courses offered by the College of Arts and Sciences (course codes starting with 08) will be held on Komaba Campus. Most of the other courses offered by other Faculties will be held on Hongo Campus. Since students admitted to the Type U program may take various courses offered across Faculties and College, please take careful note where the courses are held. There are two main campuses—Hongo and Komaba—and it takes about one hour by public transportation between the two. Because of this we recommend that students select most of their courses at one of the campuses. However, this does not mean they are not allowed to choose courses on the other campus. Restrictions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students interested in taking seminars offered in “Japanese” and “Japanese and

	English” at the Faculty of Law are allowed to apply for only one seminar course per semester. Further information will be provided to those who have been successfully accepted to study at UTokyo. There is no restriction as to the number of courses students can take for seminars if they wish to apply for seminars that are instructed in “English.” 2. In principle, Type U students are not allowed to participate in practical work (e.g. laboratory work, design studio work etc.) 3. Type U students are required to register for minimum of 10 hours worth of classes per week during their stay (Japanese immigration law stipulates that international students with a “student” visa spend a minimum of ten hours in class per week.). At least one of the classes must be a non-language class. In principle, courses worth 2 credits consist of 13 weeks of 105-minute classes. Due to the possibility of change in class periods from AY 2021, the length of each class period may vary depending on college/faculty.
Special Certificate Programs	- Global Japan Studies (GJS) managed by UTokyo Center for Contemporary Japanese Studies (TCJS) *The GJS website will be available from the end of December 2020. - Global Studies in Asia (GSA) *The information for 2021 will be announced later.

Type U Others
Tuition and Fees	Pursuant to the memorandum of student exchange, exchange students are exempt from paying examination fees, admission fees and tuition fees.
University Housing	Exchange students may apply for university housing arranged by UTokyo. However, due to the limited number of facilities available, we cannot guarantee that all students who apply for university-managed housing will be allocated a place. The International Exchange Group at UTokyo will contact the students with further details about applying for housing once their applications to study at UTokyo have been approved. Exchange students can also apply for privately managed residence of Kyoritsu Maintenance Co., Ltd. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - RUTIL (Residence of the University of Tokyo for International Life Guide) - Other student residences managed by Kyoritsu Maintenance Co. Ltd Further information about residence is available at the Housing Office.
Entry to Japan / Visa (eligibility to reside in Japan)	Exchange students must have a valid passport during their stay in Japan. In principle, students must possess “College Student” visa during their stay. After their applications to study at UTokyo have been approved, the International Exchange Group at UTokyo will provide information about the process for obtaining a Certificate of Eligibility. Students will then need to take the Certificate of Eligibility and other required documents to the nearest Japanese Embassy or Consulate to obtain a College Student visa. In order to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility, students must be able to provide that they will have minimum of 120,000 JPY per month during their stay. For example, if they are staying for seven months, they must submit official proof that they will have 840,000 JPY. The coursework at the University of Tokyo is rigorous. Though legally possible for international students with a valid work permit, the University of Tokyo strongly advises its exchange students not to seek off-campus part-time work during the

	academic terms. We require students to register for minimum of 10 hours of classes per week during a semester (this is a Japanese legal requirement). Each class can be quite demanding in its expectations. Students who wish to gain work experience while studying in Japan should not apply to USTEP. Any students who wish to work during the break(s) must obtain work permit before they begin their employment.
Scholarship	A Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) Scholarship for students who meet the requirements as well as scholarships from private foundations may be available. For further information, please refer to each link: A Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) Scholarship: application will be provided once students are successfully accepted for USTEP. *Sumitomo Corporation Scholarship (for students of Peking University, Nankai University, Fudan University: application will be provided through partner universities. *Sato Yo International Scholarship Foundation (SISF) (students of Gadjah Mada University, University of Indonesia, Nanyang Technological University, National University of Singapore, University of the Philippines, University of Malaya, Chulalongkorn University): application will be provided through partner universities. *These scholarships are available only for Autumn Admission. The above information is subject to change. Students can apply for both JASSO and Sumitomo Corporation Scholarship/SISF at the same time. Students with scholarships from other foundations must check beforehand if their scholarship allows receiving other scholarships. Replies to inquiries concerning these scholarships will only be sent to those who have been accepted to study at UTokyo.
Insurance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Health Insurance Program USTEP students must join the National Health Insurance (NHI) Program regardless of the kind of insurance they may already have. This is a strict legal requirement in Japan. Once they arrive in Japan, they must complete the required procedures at their local city/ward office. • Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research "Gakkensai" and the optional "Futai Gakuso" "Gakkensai" provides necessary support in the case of accident or injury suffered in the course of activities related to research or education. Exchange students do not need to apply for this insurance as UTokyo enrolls all its students and pays premiums. "Futai Gakuso" is an option that can be added to the "Gakkensai" for a cost (JPY 8,060 for six months). It complements a scope of insurance liability in your life such as compensation responsibility. We particularly recommend that those who will be riding bicycles in Japan obtain "Futai Gakuso," as bicycle-related accidents are common. • Students are strongly recommended to come with sufficient insurance coverage for the entire period of their stay. Payment of medical bills is the students' own responsibility and the university does not provide any assistance.

Inbound Assistance (IMAS) Medical Service	IMAS is the “Inbound Medical Assistance Service” for international students at UTokyo. (This is NOT an insurance.) All USTEP students must register for IMAS. IMAS offers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Telephone consultation for medical issues, 24/7, 365 days a year. Referral to an appropriate hospital. Interpretation service over the phone while in the hospital or during transfer to the hospital. Contacting the University if necessary. Arrangement of transportation to a medical facility or for transfer to another medical facility in Japan or in one's home country. Contacting and assisting family members in one's home country, etc. See below for further information: IMAS: Inbound Medical Assistance Service for International Students at UTokyo

However, if it is necessary for students to register for courses offered by other Graduate Schools, they may be permitted to do so provided that the Graduate School offering the course and the host Graduate School approve. Other details shall be as prescribed by the Graduate School concerned.
Global Japan Studies (GJS)	The Global Japan Studies program is designed to instill the knowledge necessary to understand the politics, economics, culture and society of Japan by offering lectures given by prominent faculty members from a variety of specialized fields. The program offers the students an insight into Japanese Studies that ranges from the fundamentals to specialized knowledge of Japan Studies. This course is provided in English, thus giving an opportunity to students whose level of proficiency in Japanese would normally prevent them from taking lectures given in Japanese and allow them to learn topics relating to Japanese society. The program is designed to be completed by students in one year. Students who complete the program will be issued a Certificate of Completion. Further information about the course is available at the website managed by UTokyo Center for Contemporary Japanese Studies (TCJS). *The GJS website will be available from the end of December 2020.
Faculty Search	Exchange students who will conduct research under the supervision of a research adviser may use the faculty search system. Locating an adviser in the search results does not guarantee that the adviser will be able to supervise the students' research.
Japanese Language Education	The Center for Japanese Language Education offers Japanese language classes (General Course). Type G students are eligible to register for these classes. Please note that credits are not awarded for this. Further information about the course is available at the website. In addition, some Graduate Schools may provide their own Japanese language classes.
