Important! If you are not yet 18 years of age, please contact the UAIWP office before registering.

Part A: Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk and Indemnity Agreement

In order to participate in the University of Alberta International Winter Program (UAIWP), all participants must read and sign a Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk and Indemnity Agreement Form during the UAIWP Orientation on January 18, 2012.

The purpose of this Agreement is to show that each participant understands that participants assume responsibility for possible risks, dangers or hazards that may occur during the UAIWP. Note that the University of Alberta will conduct all program activities in accordance with safety requirements and will assess and inform participants of the risks, dangers or hazards for each UAIWP activity. The University will assist all participants, as reasonably possible, in obtaining proper medical treatment if necessary with any situations that may occur.

By signing the form registrants accept responsibility for purchasing adequate travel and health insurance for the duration of the program.

During the online registration process, you will be asked to read the agreement and then confirm that you have read it by selecting the answer: "Yes, I have read the Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk and Indemnity Agreement Form and understand that I must sign it on January 18 in order to participate in the program."

If you do not want to sign this agreement, do not continue with UAIWP registration.

Registrants who do not sign this form will not be able to join the UAIWP.

If, after arrival in Alberta, a registrant cannot participate in the program because they do not wish to sign this agreement, all fees are non-refundable and all consequential travel and/or accommodation arrangements and costs will be the responsibility of the registrant.
