

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT FOR GRADUATE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Your Affidavit of Support for Graduate International Students (page 10) must originate from your source of support.

Submit your Affidavit of Support for Graduate International Students with your application and other admissions documents.

NOTE: A Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 Form) will not be issued until sufficient financial support is verified by MSU and the Affidavit of Support for Graduate International Students is completed.

REQUIREMENTS for ACADEMIC YEAR 2013-2014

For graduate students who bring no dependents, financial proof is required for U.S. $35,374.00. If you plan to attend summer school, proof is required for an additional U.S. $13,969.00 for tuition and fees, books, and miscellaneous expenses.

Students who accept a graduate assistantship with a stipend in the amount of U.S. $12,622.00 or greater (U.S. $6,311.00 per semester) are not required to show financial proof. If your assistantship stipend is less than U.S. $12,622.00, you will need to show financial proof of at least the difference between U.S. $12,622.00 and your assistantship stipend. You will be responsible for any portion of living expenses not covered by your assistantship stipend. Additional financial proof is required for a spouse and/or children (see Affidavit of Support form for more information).

There are links on the Graduate School website at <http://grad.msu.edu/budgetplanning/> that can assist you in planning your budget.

The Office of Admissions may require proof of additional funding as costs of attending Michigan State University may increase periodically.

VERIFICATION of FINANCES

Verification of finances can be 1 or 2:

1. Certification by a bank that you have funds available AND certification by person(s) responsible for your finances. This person must sign the Affidavit of Support for Graduate International Students.

OR

2. Certification by a government, educational institution, or official agency. Proof of finances from a government, educational institution, or official agency must appear on official stationery and contain an original seal and signature(s).
