COURSE INFORMATION

The acceptance letter does not guarantee the students can take all the courses they would like to. The Exchange Office at each faculty will contact the accepted students regarding the availability and selection of the courses.

According to the UAB Exchange policy, students must enrol at least a 50% of their credits at their host faculty (the one appearing in their acceptance letter). In case they are interested in taking courses from other UAB faculties/ schools, they will need the authorisation from all the faculties/ schools.

General information about courses is available at the web page of each faculty: Teaching Centres. For further details, please contact the Exchange Offices.

Students at a master's level can take master's courses only if the agreement with their home university allows to do so. Moreover, the master's coordinator at UAB must ALWAYS give the final approval. To ask for this approval, the student should contact the Exchange Office indicating the courses he/she would like to enrol.

Also, please note that some faculties DO NOT ACCEPT students who intend to prepare their final thesis project at UAB or to do some research for it. Please check all the academic issues with our Exchange Offices.

LANGUAGES OF INSTRUCTION

Lectures at the UAB are mainly taught either in Catalan or in Spanish. The usage of either language depends only on the lecturer who gives the course. There are some lessons offered in English as well.

For a general approach to the Bachelor's degrees courses delivered in English you can go here.

There are also a few degrees fully taught in English, but the courses corresponding to these degrees have limited seats for exchange students.

Obviously, there are other lectures taught in English for the degrees of English Studies and Translation and Interpreting, but again these courses are preferably offered to the exchange students of these specific degrees.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Classes at the UAB are given in Catalan, Spanish and English. As a general rule, it is recommended that students have a minimum language level of B1.2 according to the Common European Framework of Reference.

Some faculties at UAB require a specific level of language that must be proved by a valid certificate.

To get access to the courses offered at the Faculty of Economics and Business or at the Faculty of Political Science and Sociology a minimum level of B2 (CEFR) will be required for the language of instruction of the courses selected by the student (English, Spanish or Catalan). No language certificate will be required if the student have not selected any course in that language. You can check a list of valid certificates for the Faculty of Economics and Business here.

The Faculty of Communication requires a B2 level of Spanish to be accepted as an exchange student. Students holding a Spanish certificate issued by the Instituto Cervantes (DELE B2) will be accepted. Other certificates will be checked and evaluated on a case by case basis.

CATALAN AND SPANISH LANGUAGE COURSES

Exchange students coming to the UAB have the right to register to 2 free initial courses in Catalan language (15 hours each) and then to continue learning this language with a subsidized offer. Exchange students can also attend subsidized lessons of Spanish*

Exchange students accepted at the affiliated schools cannot benefit from these advantages.*
