THE BLACK COUNTRY LIVING MUSEUM

The Black Country Museum, located just outside Birmingham, offers students the chance to step back in time and take a closer look at Britain's Victorian past and an area that was once at the heart of the Industrial Revolution.

The open-air museum features a cobble street with old shops such as a bakery, confectioner and chemist. Students can experience a Victorian style lesson in the school room, take a tour down an old mine shaft, watch live demonstrations and more.
