

Timeline for International Students

January – February

- ✓ Review UC Davis' summer program details.
- ✓ Browse courses and frequently asked questions; full course descriptions are in the catalog. Discuss prospective courses with your adviser at your home university to determine how to transfer credit.
- ✓ Obtain a passport.
- ✓ Confirm you have satisfied the English proficiency requirement:

| Acceptable Test      | Minimum Score                           |
|----------------------|---|
| Computer-based TOEFL | 213                                     |
| Internet-based TOEFL | 80                                      |
| Paper-based TOEFL    | 550                                     |
| TOEIC                | 800                                     |
| IELTS                | 7.0                                     |
| GRE(verbal score)    | 140 - for tests taken after Aug 1, 2011 |

March – June

- ✓ Application opens March 1. Apply as early as possible to have a greater selection of courses as well as enough time to obtain your F-1 visa. A complete application includes:

| Submit online      | Submit by email               |
|--------------------|-------------------------------|
| Online Application | Supplemental Application Form |
|                    | English test score            |
|                    | passport copy                 |
|                    | financial documents           |

- ✓ Receive a Welcome Packet by FedEx with your I-20 and other important information.
- ✓ Plan courses and return a completed Course Report to staff by email.
- ✓ Register for courses online.
- ✓ Obtain appropriate visa status.
  - New F-1 applicants: Apply for an F-1 visa at a U.S. consulate.
  - Current F-1 students: Check with your adviser.
- ✓ Choose a health insurance option.
- ✓ Pay UC Davis tuition and fees online through MyBill.
- ✓ Arrange housing in Davis and confirm the date and time you will move in.
- ✓ Arrange transportation to Davis. Pay attention to important dates like orientation and the first day of class!

June – August

- ✓ Welcome to Davis, California!
- ✓ Bring your passport, I-20 and Davis address to orientation.
  - Session I orientation Friday, June 20; classes June 23 – August 1, 2014
  - Session II orientation Friday, August 1; classes August 4 – September 12, 2014