York and the University

The University of York is a leading UK University in the historic city of York, one of Europe's most beautiful cities. Close to the city centre, it is situated on a lake-side campus. York has been voted the safest city in the world in a recent survey.

Programme Structure

Keynote talks will be delivered by senior academics in Economics, Politics and Health Sciences.

Discussion sessions will help you to engage in reflective and independent thinking and will help you to understand approaches to problem solving expected in top class higher education institutions.

Visits will include a two-day trip to London, a day-trip to Edinburgh and a tour of the historic city centre of York

You will prepare a poster presentation that will bring together your experiences on the programme.
