“I live in Kinloch lodge, which is one of the Unilodge housings on campus. I’ve really enjoyed living close to all my classes because it’s so easy to move between home and university.

Unilodge has put together all kinds of events and activities: movie nights, sport teams, social activities. Probably the best part is meeting new people and living in a community!”

Roosa - on exchange to ANU in 2018

YOUR TICKET TO MAKE IT HAPPEN

If your home institution (the institution you are completing your degree at) has an exchange agreement with ANU then you may be able to secure an exchange place for a semester or year abroad. Through this agreement you are not required to pay any course fees to ANU!

Eligibility

To be eligible to come to ANU as an exchange student you need to meet both the academic and English language requirements.

must have completed at least one year (full time or equivalent) at your home institution.

A minimum GPA of an equivalent to 4 out of 7 - or as per your institutions specific agreement

English language requirements:

If you wish to study at ANU as an exchange student, talk to your home institution about how to apply for exchange!

“As an exchange student, choosing ANU has been the best decision of my university career so far.

Through the ANIP program, I have been given the unique chance to intern in the Australian Parliament as part of my degree. What I have learnt so far has been invaluable and will no doubt shape the rest of my life.”

Sophie Delamothe

ANIP Intern from Trinity College of Dublin, Ireland
